

Golden Gate University School of Law
and
The Society of American Law Teachers
Proudly Announce

“Vulnerable Populations and Economic Realities: An Interdisciplinary Approach to Law Teaching”

A Two-Day Poverty Law Conference
Friday, March 19 – Saturday, March 20, 2010
Golden Gate University School of Law
536 Mission Street, San Francisco

Academics, practitioners, and advocates from legal education, the social sciences, and the media will share new data and theories about our most vulnerable populations and explore critical issues facing these groups in an interdisciplinary context for use in law teaching.

Friday, March 19

Keynote Panelists:

Professor Paul Butler, George Washington University Law School
Professor Richard Delgado, Seattle University School of Law

Saturday, March 20

Keynote Speaker:

John Payton, President and Director-Counsel of the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund
Mr. Payton successfully argued on behalf of the University of Michigan in a recent landmark Supreme Court case regarding diversity in higher education.

MCLE credit available. Hotel specials available until Feb. 18. Contact Professor Michele Benedetto Neitz, 415-442-6575, mneitz@ggu.edu, or visit www.saltlaw.org.

Made possible by a generous grant from the Elfenworks Foundation.

GOLDEN GATE UNIVERSITY

School of Law

SALT
SOCIETY OF AMERICAN LAW TEACHERS