

The Society of American Law Teachers—What’s New?

October 19, 2009

THERE’S STILL TIME TO RENEW YOUR MEMBERSHIP AND VOTE

Don’t delay! It’s time to renew and we need your membership to keep SALT’s voice clear and vital. Renew on-line and within 24 hours, you will be eligible to vote in the SALT board of governors’ election. We will send you instructions for how to vote on-line as soon as your membership renewal is processed. Voting closes October 28th at midnight, eastern time.

Logging into the new SALT website to renew your membership is easy:

If you had previously registered at the old SALT website, go to “login” on the top menu, then use your email address as your user name and your old password. If you have forgotten your password, click to get a new one emailed to you. Then go to “membership” and renew for this year.

For those of you who never logged in previously, go to “sign up” on the top menu to register. Remember, your email address is your username and create at least a six character login password. You will need to fill in all of the information requested in order to complete registration.

Then renew your membership for 2009-2010.

For current members, Vote here now.

WHY JOIN SALT? BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP INCLUDE:

- A Network of Peers: SALT is a community of progressive law teachers working for justice, diversity, and academic excellence, colleagues available to work together on projects, scholarship, policymaking, and organizing conferences.
- Weekly Electronic Newsletter: Keep informed about current issues in legal education, calls for papers, and projects through SALT's weekly newsletter.
- The EQUALIZER: The Newsletter that keeps you abreast of the work of SALT's committees, conferences, workshops, and policy work.
- Annual Salary Survey: The only nationwide and regional analysis of law faculty salaries organized by school.
- SALTLAW.org: our newly designed website is the place to go for resources on the critical issues facing law teachers and social justice work. Our national calendar of progressive events, calls for papers, job board, and "SALT Members in the News" makes this dynamic website a real recourse to busy academics.
- Member Online Registration to SALT Teaching Conferences, Workshops, and of course, the SALT Annual Dinner.
