A two-credit CLE for practicing lawyers and law school students who want to provide pro bono counsel to unaccompanied children who are seeking safety in the United States. The CLE will take participants through an overview of the proceedings, including migration of minor children, basics of removal proceedings for children, appearances in immigration court, legal remedies and options, and working with children. Graduates of this program will join a growing community of pro bono counsel with whom to share information and advice while representing these children.

Registration is free but necessary. Spaces are limited.

To register, go to www.saltlaw.org and complete the form.
