Vulnerable Populations and Economic Realities Turns into Book Project with Carolina Academic Press

Participants at the March 19-20 “Vulnerable Populations and Economic Realities” teaching conference co-sponsored by SALT and Golden Gate University School of Law have been asked to submit essays, based upon their presentations, for inclusion in a volume to be published by Carolina Academic Press in its law school teaching series. The editorial board for this volume includes:

- Raquel Aldana (McGeorge)
- Steve Bender (University of Oregon)
- Olympia Duhart (Nova Southeastern)
- Michele Benedetto Neitz (Golden Gate)
- Angela Onwuachi Willig (University of Iowa)
- Hari Osofsky (Washington & Lee)

We are aiming for a December 2010 publication date to coincide with the upcoming SALT teaching conference in Hawai'i.

2009 SALT Great Teacher Rhonda Copelon To Be Honored by Center for Constitutional Rights

SALT Great Teacher Rhonda Copelon will be honored by 2006 SALT M. Shanara Gilbert Awardee the Center for Constitutional Rights at a New York City luncheon on Tuesday, April 20th to announce the creation of the Copelon Fund for Gender Justice. Read more and reserve a seat.

SALT Teaching Conference Hotel Information Posted

The response to the call for proposals for the December 10-11 SALT teaching conference was phenomenal! The Committee is working to put together a comprehensive and inclusive program that highlights teaching law in a transformative age. Presenters will be notified this week. In the meantime, hotel information is now available on the SALTLAW.org website. Click here to read more.
