THIRD NATIONAL PEOPLE OF COLOR LEGAL SCHOLARSHIP CONFERENCE

SEPTEMBER 9-12, 2010

SETON HALL UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

The Preliminary Program for the Third National People of Color Legal Scholarship Conference is now available at http://law.shu.edu/About/News_Events/thirdnationalpoc/loader.cfm?csModule=security/getfile&PageID=135053

You will note that on Saturday, September 11th from 10:45am-12pm and from 12:00-1:15pm, there is an opportunity to work with high school students as part of the NJ LEEP Volunteer Project. The New Jersey Law and Education Empowerment Project (NJ LEEP) works with urban middle school and high school students by using law to inspire and motivate them to succeed in academics. NJ LEEP utilizes mock trials, constitutional debates, and other law-related educational tools to excite students about learning, while teaching them important skills such as analysis, reading comprehension, and public speaking. We need volunteers to work one-on-one with students on brief writing and oral argument.

Once you register for the conference http://law.shu.edu/About/News_Events/thirdnationalpoc/registration.cfm, you will receive a confirmation email with an invitation to volunteer for the NJ LEEP Volunteer Project and a link to the sign up sheet.

Please register before July 31st to take advantage of the early bird registration fee.

We look forward to seeing you at the conference.

--The Third National People of Color Legal Scholarship Conference Planning Committee

The Third National People of Color Legal Scholarship Conference does not discriminate on the basis of any identity status or scholarly perspective. We are strongly dedicated to the pursuit of excellence by including and integrating individuals who represent different groups, including those based on race, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, religion, socioeconomic background, age, disability, immigration or veteran status, or any other status.
