SALT Announces Honorees for January 7, 2011 Annual Dinner at Delancey Street Foundation, SF

Each year at the AALS Annual Meeting, SALT holds its Annual Dinner, affording an opportunity for activist professors and law school administrators to enjoy an evening of good food, good conversation and a chance to honor a star. This upcoming SALT Annual Dinner will be held on Friday, January 7, 2011, at the Delancey Street Foundation in San Francisco.

From an impressive roster of nominees submitted by passionate SALT members, the SALT Board of Governors is proud to announce the SALT Great Teacher and M. Shanara Gilbert Human Rights awardees.

- Phoebe A. Haddon, Dean University of Maryland School of Law—SALT's Great Teacher
- Don Specter, Rebekah Evenson, and the Prison Law Office—M. Shanara Gilbert Human Rights Award

Watch the front page of www.saltlaw.org for biographies of the nominees!

Welcome Your New Faculty By Inviting Them to Join SALT

Last week I attended the AALS new teachers' workshops for pretenured faculty of color and newly hired professors. I had a chance to meet some exciting scholars and teachers who are looking for friends and guidance in their new institutions.

You can start a conversation with your new colleagues by letting them know that SALT offers two immediate opportunities to engage in professional development:

- October 7-8: SALT LatCrit Junior Faculty Workshop at the LatCrit Conference, The Color of the Economic Crisis: Exploring the Downturn from the Bottom Up at Denver University Sturm College of Law
- December 10-11: SALT Teaching Conference: Teaching in a Transformative Age: The Law School of the Future, University of Hawai'i

Let me know if you want to become a SALT rep at your school and we will send out a packet of the new SALT membership cards and other goodies.
