

Breaking In and Staying In Legal Academia

Wednesday, Sept. 28, 2016 | 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. | Reception to Follow

The John Marshall Law School
315 S. Plymouth Court
Chicago, Illinois 60604
Event: Room 409
Reception: 3 East

This is a program for anyone considering a position in law school teaching or administration. We welcome students thinking about a future career in the academy, practitioners considering a transition or foray into adjunct teaching and those contemplating a post in law school leadership. This program will offer hands-on practical advice to people who are considering a move into teaching or administration at a law school. Current faculty members considering a post in law school administration should attend. Members from underrepresented groups in the academy are especially welcome.

Please register online at <http://breaking-in.eventbrite.com>

Registration: FREE. Online registration is required.

Registration capped at first 50 guests. Complete your registration today to save your spot.

This event is proudly co-sponsored by:

